CONSULTANTS LLC

NACE Certified Coating Inspectors
Veteran Owned & Operated

RFI Consultants LLC is a veteran owned & operated company providing our clients with a wide range of services. We offer independent NACE third party inspections, training, coating consulting and failure analysis in the protective coatings/linings and commercial industry. RFI Consultants LLC is completely independent and utilizes independent laboratories for all coatings analysis. Being independent allows our clients the peace of mind that our work and its subsequent results are unbiased and straight forward.

We have all experienced if not heard the phrase that the projects coatings portion is a small part of the overall project but it is responsible for 100% of the project headache. We firmly believe that our special brand of professionalism and service will help drastically reduce if not completely eliminate this ever increasing problem.
